There is none like Eloheinu, there is none like our Adonai, there is none like our King, there is none like our Deliverer.

Who is like Eloheinu? Who is like Adonai? Who is like our King? Who is like our Deliverer?

Let us give thanks to Eloheinu, let us give thanks to Adonai, let us give thanks to our King, let us give thanks to our Deliverer.

Blessed be Eloheinu, Blessed be Adonai, Blessed be our King, Blessed be our Deliverer.

You are He to whom our fathers offered before You the fragrant incense.

Aaronic Benediction

Prayer to be said in Sukkah:

Upon entering the sukkah we invite the Ushpizin-guests to join us, and we offer prayers that our fulfillment of the mitzvah of sukkah be found worthy of Divine favor.

Behold, I am prepared and ready to perform the commandment of sukkah as the Creator, Blessed is His Name, commanded me: In sukkot shall you dwell for seven days; every citizen in Israel shall dwell in sukkot; in order that your generations may know that I caused the Children of Israel to dwell in sukkot when I brought them forth from the land of Egypt.

Be seated, be seated, exalted guests; be seated, be seated, holy guests; be seated, be seated, guests of faithfulness, be seated in the shade of the Holy One, Blessed is He. Worthy is our portion, worthy is the portion Of Israel, as it is written: For HaShem's portion is His people, Jacob the lot of His heritage. May the pleasantness of Adonai, Eloheinu, be upon us - may He establish our handiwork for us; our handiwork may He establish.

May it be Your will, Adonai my Elohim and Elohim of my fathers, that you abide among us. Spread over us the sukkah of peace as we fulfill your instructions concerning the sukkah and acknowledge in awe and love the uniqueness of Your holy and blessed name. As the eagle watches over his nest, so let the pure and holy radiance of Your glory, that You spread over our heads, surround us, and let the stream of life flow in your servant. And seeing that I have gone out of my house, and am following Your instructions, may it be accounted to me as though I had wandered far in Your path. O wash me thoroughly from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin. Keep me in life, Adonai; bestow on me the abundance of Your blessings; and to those who hunger and thirst give bread and water. You have made me worthy to dwell safely under the cover of Your wings, deal graciously with us and make us worthy to dwell many days upon the land, the holy land, ever serving and fearing You. Blessed be Adonai for ever. Amen.

Deserving of praise are You, Adonai Eloheinu, Ruler of the universe, who sanctified us by Your commandments and commanded us to dwell in the sukkah.

BERAKHAH AND LIGHTING OF CANDLES

Baruch atah Adonai Eloheinu Melech HaOlam, asher kidshanu b' mitzvotav v'tzivanu l'hadlik ner shel Yom Tov.

Blessed are You, Adonai Eloheinu, Ruler of the universe, who has sanctified us through His commandments, and permitted and enabled us to kindle the Festival Lights.

Baruch atah Adonai Eloheinu Melech HaOlam, shecheyanu, v'kiyemanu, v'higianu, lazman hazeh.

Deserving of praise are You, Adonai Eloheinu, Ruler of the universe, who kept us alive and sustained us and privileged us to reach this season.

BREAK FOR MEAL

THE KIDDUSH- THE BLESSING OVER THE WINE

Baruch Atah Adonai Eloheynu Melech Ha Olam boree pree ha gafen. Amen.

Blessed are You Adonai Eloheinu, King of the Universe, Creator of the fruit of the vine.

THE HAMOTZI- THE BLESSING OVER THE BREAD

Baruch Atah Adonai Eloheynu Melech Ha Olam ha motzi lechem min ha eretz. Amen

Blessed are You Adonai Eloheinu, King of the Universe, who brings forth bread from the earth. Amen.

Prayer on taking the Lulav:

We wave the lulav in every direction, thus signifying the omnipresence of HaShem. “ He is everywhere. He is Eloheinu, there is none else.”

Wave the lulav together:

I am prepared to follow the instructions of my Creator who commanded us in His Torah, “and take for yourselves on the first day the fruit of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, a bough of thick-leaved trees, and willows of the brook” While I wave them, may great blessings flow on us, and holy thoughts fill us: for certainly He is the Elohim of all gods and Adonai of all lords. He rules below and above, and His sovereignty has dominion over all. May this observance of the instructions concerning the Four species be accepted as fulfilling it in all its details and particulars. And let the beauty of Adonai Eloheinu rest upon us; and may You establish the work of our hands. May Adonai be praised for ever and ever. Amen.

The will of those who fear him He fulfills; He hears their cry and delivers them . Adonai watches over all those who love Him. And will destroy all the wicked. Praise of Adonai my mouth will declare, and all flesh will bless His holy Name forever and ever. And we will bless HaShem from now on forever. Praise HaShem.

"Observe and Remember" in one divine utterance, we heard from the One and Only Elohim, Adonai is One and His name is One, for renown, for splendor, and for praise.

Come my beloved to welcome the bride, the presence of Shabbat we receive.

Shake off the dust, arise! Dress in garments of glory, my people, through the son of Jesse, the Bethlehemite, redemption draws near to my soul.

PRAYER

You revealed to us, Adonai Eloheinu, Your righteous instructions, and taught us to follow Your guidelines. You gave us, Adonai Eloheinu, just ordinances and fair laws, good statutes and wholesome commandments. You gave us joyful seasons and holy days and festivals. You granted us the sanctity of Shabbat, the glory of the holy days and the celebration of Your festivals. You distinguished between the holy and the profane, between light and darkness, between Israel and the other peoples, between the seventh day of rest and the six days of work. You distinguished between the Sabbath and the Festival, and hallowed the seventh day above the six days of work. You hallowed Your people Israel with Your holiness. You gave us in love, Adonai Eloheinu, festivals for rejoicing, feasts and seasons for gladness this Day for the Feast of Sukkot, the season of our rejoicing, a holy gathering, a memorial of our liberation from Egypt.

Fortunate are those who dwell in Your house; may they continue to praise You, Selah. Fortunate is the people whose lot is thus; fortunate is the people for whom Adonai is their Elohim. A praise by David! I will exalt You, my Elohim the King, and bless Your Name forever and ever. Adonai is great and highly extolled, and His greatness is unfathomable. One generation to another will laud your works and declare Your mighty acts. The splendor of Your glorious majesty, and the words of Your wonders I will speak. Of Your awesome might, they will speak and Your greatness I will recount. They will make mention of Your bountifulness, and joyfully exult in Your righteousness. Adonai is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and great in kindness. Adonai is good to all, His mercy encompasses all his works. All Your works will thank You, Adonai, and Your pious ones will bless You.

Of the honor of Your kingship they will speak, and Your might they will declare. To reveal to men His mighty acts, and the glorious splendor of His kingship. Your kingship is the kingship for all times, and Your dominion is in every generation. Adonai supports all the fallen, and straightens all the bent. The eyes of all look expectantly to You, and You give them their food at its proper time. You open your
